Subject: Mechanism for the substitution of MLAs Priority Schemes.

Sir,

Kindly refer to this department letter No. PLG.FC(F)1-28/ 06/
RIDF-(MLAs) 2012-13 dated 3rd May, 2013 on the subject cited above.

2. It has been clarified vide above mentioned letter that in case any MLA priority scheme is sanctioned through any Central or State sector fund, other than NABARD loan assistance, the priority will be considered as sanctioned and no substitution of such scheme will be allowed. But, it has been observed that substitution proposals of such MLA priority schemes as have already been sanctioned under Central/State sector funds are being received.

3. You are requested to direct all the XENs posted in the Divisions of your Department to apprise the concerned Hon'ble MLAs from time to time about the latest status of each of the MLA priority schemes including schemes sanctioned under GoI/State Sector funds, so that substitution proposals are received as per the approved policy of the State Government. Planning Department may also be informed so that record is updated accordingly.

Yours faithfully,

Pray
